

Already, most of our "local" radio broadcasters are no longer local. There seems to be no interest in accountability or public service to the local communities. Radio stations I used to respect now appear to more intested in sensationalism, exteme poliical agendas and bottom line.